

Bill Warren Clinic

Date: September 16th and 17th, 2017

Location: Greber Dressage at Pasmore Stables , 5173 Sugar Ridge Rd, Crozet, VA 22932

Our Clinician:

Bill is a FEI 3 Judge, a USDF Bronze, Silver and Gold medalist and USEF 'S' Judge. Since 1998 he and partner Bill McMullin have been operating Warren-McMullin Dressage first in Rhode Island and from 2007 in Massachusetts. They are in Massachusetts from May through November and in Wellington, FL from December through April. For the past several years Bill has studied primarily with Conrad Schumacher and George* Williams. This concentrated work with their classical approach has strengthened Bill's teaching abilities and classical principles. Bill teaches riders of all levels, while continuing to be an avid competitor, judge, trainer, coach and clinician. Bill sets high standards for himself and his students.

He enjoys celebrating the achievements of his students and the fruition of his hard work in and out of the show ring.

Bill continues to work six days a week training his Grand Prix partner Romantic, a twelve year old Oldenburg sired by Rhodiamant and owned by Team Romantic, LLC. Bill maintains an active show schedule in New England (Region 8) and in Wellington, Florida. In addition to Romantic, he also can be seen showing several clients horses throughout the levels.

Cost: $115.00 per ride for 45 minutes.

$20 for a day stall and $40 overnight. Bring your own bedding and buckets. Limited stalls available.

VADA –CH members and Juniors audit the clinic for free.

Non-members need to pay $15 per day or $25.00 to audit for the weekend. Please bring your own Chair!
